Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Leer, of Paris, who have just returned from their bridal tour, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McDaniel, from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. Bayles DeBell arrived from Lexington as the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Caldwell, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. DeBell returned to their home at Ewing, yesterday.

The Farmers Bank closed its doors after business hours Saturday afternoon with $1,250,000 deposits. This has surpassed anything in banking business that but a short time ago Millersburg could have dreamed of.

Mr. R. M. Caldwell has resigned the agency of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, Mr. W. E. Bptler accepting the same. Mr. Caldwell desires to thank the patrons of these papers for their patronage during the several years he served them.

Mr. K. R. Vaughn, of Indianapolis, Ind., arrived Saturday at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. T. D. Judy. Mrs. Vaughn has been with her parents for several weeks. Her father, Mr. T. D. Judy, who has been confined to his home for several weeks, is able to be about the house.

Mr. Edgar Hurst opened his new cafe Friday evening in the property of Mrs. Sue B. Sandusky, recently vacated by the Blue Bowl Cafe, of Mrs. B. R. Rigdon. The building has been completely remodeled, and with its new furnishings is now one of the most attractive buildings in Millersburg. Mr. Hurst has enjoyed a good patronage since he opened the place, and his many friends wish him all the success possible in his new enterprise.

Mrs. S. M. Allen, D. W. Ingels, L. R. Rogers and J. M. Alverson entertained with an elaborate reception at the home of Mrs. Allen Thursday afternoon, in honor of the approaching nuptials of Miss Martha Adela Smith to Mr. Henry Clay Curran. The wedding will take place some time this month. About one hundred invitations were issued, most of them being responded to. The ladies were assisted by a number of their lady friends and the reception was one of the most delightful held here in a long time. The decorations were beautiful and a delightful lunch was served.

Miss Lyda E. Gardner, of Carlisle, and Mr. O. E. Hurst, of Millersburg, addressed the citizens of our city in the Graded School building Friday evening, on the need of better and enlarged Graded School building. Owing to the disagreeable evening, the audience was not as large as it otherwise would have been. Public sentiment here is at last stirred in behalf of a more complete school system for Millersburg. We can get it, and we are going to have it. Other meetings will be held in the near future with this object in view and before many weeks have rolled around all the requirements will be met and the site selected for the new building.

A surprise birthday party was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Eckley, in honor of the nineteenth birthday of their son, Mr. Harry Eckley, who has just returned from the navy, after receiving an honorable discharge. Rook and good music was enjoyed by all present.

DEATHS.

HUTCHCRAFT

Death came suddenly at an early hour last Sunday morning to Mr. Henry Clay Hutchcraft, aged eighty, one of the best-known and most prominent citizens of the city. Mr. Hutchcraft was found lying across a divan at his home, on Main street, in this city, by his daughter, Mrs. Fanniebelle Sutherland, with whom he had made his home for many years.

Mr. Hutchcraft had been up and around the home a short time previous, and after a short while went to his room. Not responding to the call for breakfast, Mrs. Sutherland went to his room to investigate, and to her horror, found her father cold in death, his demise having apparently taken place within a comparatively short time after he had returned to the room. Medical aid was quickly summoned, but to no avail, as Mr. Hutchcraft was beyond all earthly aid.

Mr. Hutchcraft was a member of one of the best-known families in the county or State, and for many years was one of the best-posted Short-horn breeders and farmer in the county. His home on the Clintonville pike, near Paris, was always one where hospitality and good cheer reigned and the "stranger within the gates" was as welcome as kith and kin. He was a man of cheerful and amiable disposition, of keen business instincts, and one whom it was a pleasure to know. He was a son of the late Reuben and Fanny Hedges Hutchcraft, and was born near Stony Point, in the county, where he had spent practically most of his long and useful life. For the past thirty-five years he had been a consistent member and one of the officers of the Paris Christian church. His wife, who was a member of one of the old families of the county, preceded him to the grave many years ago.

Mr. Hutchcraft is survived by one son, Mr. Edward Hutchcraft, of Chicago; one daughter, Mrs. Fanniebelle Sutherland, of Paris; two grandchildren, Mr. Clay Sutherland, of Paris, and Arthur Stephen Hutchcraft; two brothers, Mr. R. B. Hutchcraft, of Paris, and William Hutchcraft, residing in California, and one sister, Mrs. R. M. Harris, of Paris. He was an uncle of the late Capt. Reuben B. Hutchcraft, who gave his life in the defense of democracy.

The funeral was held at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The pall-bearers were his nephews, W. S. Ray, Chas. N. Fithian, Kelly Haley, Clay Shropshire and Jno. T. Hedges and Dr. F. M. Faries.

WITHERS.

The funeral of Mrs. Martin Withers, who died at her home on the Ruddles Mills pike, of influenza, was held at the residence Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. The interment took place in the Battle Grove Cemetery, at Cynthiana, with services conducted at the grave.

Mrs. Withers was aged sixty-nine. She was the widow of William Withers, who died nine years ago. She is survived by nine children, Messrs. Raymond, George and John Withers, Mrs. Flora Florence and Mrs. Arabelle Wyles, all of Scott county; Mrs. Pearl Farmer, of Paris; Mrs. Mary Morrison, and Armand Withers, both of Scott county, and Mrs. Sallie Refett, of near Ruddles Mills, and by one brother, Henry Platt, who resided with her.

BELL.

The funeral of Mrs. Bertha M. Bell, aged thirty-five, who died Friday of pneumonia, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert Snapp, near Shawhan, was held at the Christian church, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The interment followed in the Paris Cemetery.

Mrs. Bell is survived by her mother, Mrs. Lucy Price Bell, three brothers, Price Bell, Garrett Bell, and Horace Bell, and one sister, Mrs. Albert Snapp.

KOHLASS.

Mr. George N. Kohllass, aged fifty-two, well-known in Paris, died in Winchester, Friday morning, after a long illness resulting from a nervous breakdown. Mr. Kohllass was for many years in the merchant tailoring business. He was a man of upright principles and kindly temperament.

Mr. Kohllass was well-known to the older residents of Paris. Besides his widow, who was Miss Julia Hodgkin, he is survived by his widowed mother, Mrs. Pattie Lou Kohllass, and one daughter, Miss Louise Kohllass. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his late home, followed by burial in the Winchester Cemetery.

SURE WE CAN DO IT

Some folks seem to think that Uncle Sam is going to have trouble this spring in floating his Victory-Liberty Loan of $5,000,000,000.

That now that the war is over, all save signing the peace treaty, public support is going to loiter on the way to the bond counter.

But don't you believe it. The great American public, which means of course nothing more nor less than the American people, are going to finish the job.

They've been behind Uncle Sam every minute. They're behind him right now. They're going to be behind him until the last nail is driven in the coffin of Kaiserdom. Until democracy is really safe for the world.

It took just three weeks in the Fourth Liberty Loan for these same folks to subscribe something like $6,500,000,000.

And it wasn't such great shakes of an effort at that.

They have bought something like $17,000,000,000 worth of Liberty Bonds since the war began almost 18 months ago.

Yet no one has gone broke in the performance.

And there is still a sufficient surplus of loose change lying around the country to take this next $5,000,000,000 issue without seriously crippling any of the projects necessary to our continued prosperity.

For most folks have been making a little more money of late than ever before. Some have been spending more. But most of us have got as far as our A B C's in the lesson of thrift. And we like the idea.

Besides this next loan is to be only for a short term, and the rate is to be higher, and winter will be over and spring will be in the air and all will be lovely. And the future will be looking as bright as the skies.

We simply cannot fall down this time. We will not.

We will simply eat it up.
